Geography

Recommended wider reading for KS4 Students.

- Prisoners of Geography by Tim Marshall: Great for understanding geopolitics, borders, and how physical geography shapes the political and economic fortunes of nations.
- "Factfulness" by Hans Rosling: Excellent for development topics, challenging misconceptions about global poverty, population growth, and living standards using clear data.
- The Almighty Dollar by Dharshini David: Explores globalisation and resource consumption by tracking the journey of everyday items across the global economy.
- A Short History of Nearly Everything" by Bill Bryson: Offers engaging context on Earth science, weather systems, and physical processes.
- Disaster by Choice by Ian Kelman Human decisions and their role in exacerbating natural disasters.
- Rebuilding the City: Property-led Urban Regeneration by Patsy Healey
- Tomorrow's Geography textbook, fifth edition by Hodder Pearson
- Worth dying for: the power and politics of flags by Tim Marshall
- This is the way the World ends by Jeff Nesbit
- Population 10 billion by Danny Dorling
- Off the map by Alastair Bennett
- The Water Will Come by Jeff Goodell
- The Sixth Extinction by Elizabeth Kolbert
