This chart lists the 14 allergens that must be declared under UK food information law, using allergen data supplied by Anchor Catering. It does not cover trace or “may contain” risks — products are made in environments that handle all allergens. Recipes can change: always check the product label before eating. Pupils and staff with a diagnosed allergy should ensure the school holds an up-to-date Individual Healthcare Plan. Published in line with the BMAT Allergy Safety Policy and DfE statutory guidance ‘Allergy safety in schools’ (September 2026). Anchor treats “may contain” (environmental) risks as CONTAINS in the data it supplies.
